AST FOUR NIGHTS OF ROBERT HELLER IN NEW York.—The whole city will be present to witness the closing performances of the greatest conjuror and artist that ever appeared in the United States, and after a brilliant and triumphant run of nearly 200 consecutive nights he is about to fulfil the various enormous engagements which press on him from all quarters. The exposure of the infernal but clever imposture, the curse of the world, the so called spirit rappings, by which Mr. Heller has reclaimed many and saved others from eternal damnation; the great second eight fest, which puts the knockings into the shade altogather; these and other mysteries the greatest, cleverent, and most original in the world, which have been copied by se many pretenders to position as artists, &c., will form the steple amusements of the last four performances, and the pregramme will be changed every evening. On Friday next, GRAND FAREWELL NIGHT.

Let every one be able to say, "Wa have seen Heller.
